Seniors

We do not strive for worlds our own,
Or empires and "things".
Our hearts are set on one reward--
The joy that knowledge brings.

For four years we have trod the paths
Through high school's magic halls,
Drinking nectar from learning's cup
And answering to her calls.

Now as we stand before the door
Opened for us by learning,
O, Seniors let us tell the world
How our hearts with joy are singing.

H.H. '55

A month after school started the Seniors selected their announcements. The graduation pictures were taken during the month of February. The several candy sales given by the class were a success. Many meetings were held to determine the dates for "Senior Ditch Day" and the Senior Ball. The Senior Medeley was very different from those of the past years. The students had their names written below their pictures. The class emblem was engraved in the center of the Medeley. Then, with social activities out of the way, the Seniors looked forward to the day of their graduation, when they would become a part of the alumni of the Liberty Union High School.

THE JUNIORS

First as Freshmen we boisterously came,
Then as Sophomores we gained a letter name.
As upper classmen now we shine,
And study hard and bide our time.

We've had our luck and chances---
We've had our fun and dances---
Many friends both tried and true
From our many friendships grew.

But now there is so near
Just one more short, short year
And then instead of only Juniors
We'll be the high and mighty Seniors.

M. W. '36

At the beginning of the new semester the Juniors held their heads high--proud to be upper classmen and proud of their new advisor, Mr. Melville Hoyt. After the business of class rings had been completely settled their thoughts were turned toward their big event, the Junior Prom. The decoration scheme of the Prom carried the idea of the last night aboard a ship. The class of '36 has been well represented in all events of the school. Many sales or different varieties were held to collect the much needed money to carry out class plans. The Seniors were entertained on May 8, at a tea party. After the show everyone enjoyed refreshments at Milan's Cafe in Antioch.

The Sophomores

There is a spirit that grows
As we go along life's way,
It begins with a happy mood
That lasts throughout the day.

It is the spirit of friendship--
Thus may it always stay
To help us in our daily work
From morn till close of day.

The spirit is ever faithful--
To keep it thus let us pray
And may each student add to it
And take a part away.

V. P. '37

The members of the Sophomore Class entered their second year of high school with high spirits. They were determined to make themselves known to the rest of the school. Their first successful activity was the Sophomore-Junior Party. A hot-dog sale netted good returns as did the tennis racket raffle. The class put on a very unusual concession at the Hi-Jinx. This was the exhibit of "Aimee Minnie", the famous delta pruner, that caused so much concern to residents of the San Joaquin region. Under the direction of Mr. Robert Durbrow they have great hopes for two more successful years in this high school.

FRESHMAN

As we stumble along the weary path
Of knowledge, year by year,
We struggle and strive for our success
As every goal draws near.

Life is a game played hard and fair-
A problem worked each day;
Each friend who nearer to us grows
Helps us on our way.

So little by little the Freshman grows
In inches and in thought
'Till soon a Sophomore he becomes-
He's reached the goal he sought.

B.B. '38

The Freshmen entered high school, proud of the fact that they were members of the student body. They have been active in school events. The class play for the Hi-Jinx, entitled "The Studio Murder Case", was very amusing. This play was written by one of the members of the Freshman Class, Florence Salazar. At the Hi-Jinx they also sold popcorn and noise-makers. In order to raise money for their class, the freshmen held a hamburger sale and a noon dance. The proceeds were used for the Freshman-Sophomore picnic. With the close of their first year, the Freshmen are looking forward to next semester when they will be known as Sophomores.

At the beginning of the school term there was a student body drive to sell student body cards. Twice a month student body business was transacted at the regular meetings. Athletic rallies were held which aroused the enthusiasm of the students and the basketball games were well attended.

Representatives from the University of California gave the student body a series of short talks on March 21. They told about the university and its educational opportunities. On April 3, Brother James, Dean of St. Mary's College, spoke before the assembly students. On April 25, Major Schoff, northwest policeman and boy scout leader, gave the students an interesting talk on his experiences in Africa, Canada, and Mexico. He showed many trophies which he had collected in his travels. A delegation Committee from the College of the Pacific gave an all-male program before the school on May 8. There were instrumental numbers and readings, as well as the customary speeches.

The Student Affairs Committee held meetings at regular intervals during the school year to discuss the most important affairs of the student body. At these meetings dates were selected, money appropriated and policies outlined. This organization gives the final word on all school problems. The president of the student body is an ex-officio member. Mr. E. G. Nash, principal, and Mrs. Ashley D. Shaw always attended the meetings,

The Diablo Valley Chapter of the Future Farmers of America spent a busy and profitable year under the supervision of Mr. Robert Durbrow. The first activity of the year was the Future Farmers annual trip to the State Fair. While there the boys saw the "million dollar live stock parade." Willie de Mattei received his Gold Key from Governor Herriman as a reward for his excellent project work, his scholastic standing, and his leadership among his fellow-men.

The next big event on their calendar was the Great Western Livestock Show in Los Angeles on Nov. 16-17-18. The boys spent exciting and interesting days seeing the city, the motion picture studios, and the livestock show. On March 23 the boys attended a field day and judging contest at Turlock; and, on April 6, participated in Baine Field Day at Lodi.

The South San Francisco Livestock Show took place during the week of Easter Vacation. Lawrence Higgins showed three lambs and remained for five days while the lambs were judged and auctioned off. The Annual Future Farmers State Convention took place May 9-10-11 at San Luis Obispo. This convention was attended by Willie de Mattei and Masao Terai as delegates from the Diablo Valley chapter.

A social event, occurred in January when the boys took an overnight snow trip to the mountains. The concluding event of the year was the Father-Son Banquet, which took place on June 4. Kenneth Dwyer was master of ceremonies.

GUILD OF APPLIED ARTS

Anita Armstrong.....President
Mary Jo Soares.....Secretary-Treasurer
Miss Winifred Cochran.....Advisor

The Guild of Applied Arts was started again this year under the supervision of Miss Winifred Cochran.

One of the guild's activities this year was a trip to San Francisco, in the early Spring, to view the spring fashions and materials. Those who were the delegates were Anita Armstrong, Carolyn Webber, Thelma Reynolds, and Miss Winifred Cochran. They visited the City of Paris, Magnin's and Livingston's. At Livingston's the delegates listened to a style talk and saw a fashion show. The students had lunch at Luccas.

The members of the guild entertained their mothers with a tea and fashion show which was staged by the courtesy of the Sterling Co., Stockton. Those who modeled sport clothes were Anita Armstrong, Barbara Bonnickson, and Mary Elizabeth Kreim. Jean McFarlan and Mae Smith modeled evening dresses.

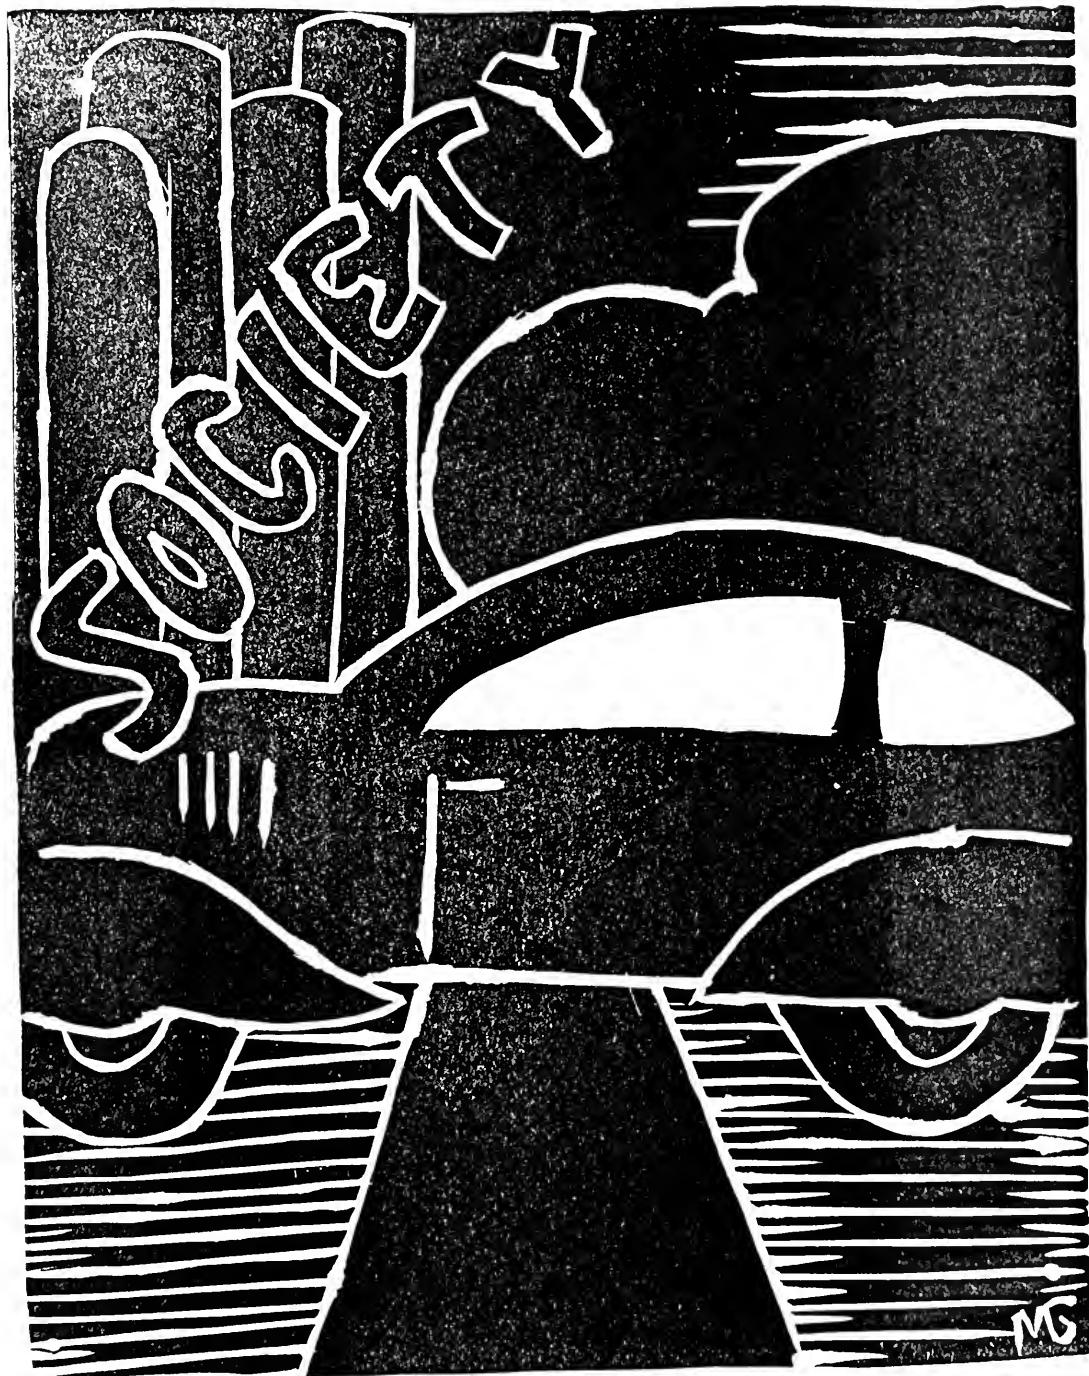

ORCHESTRA

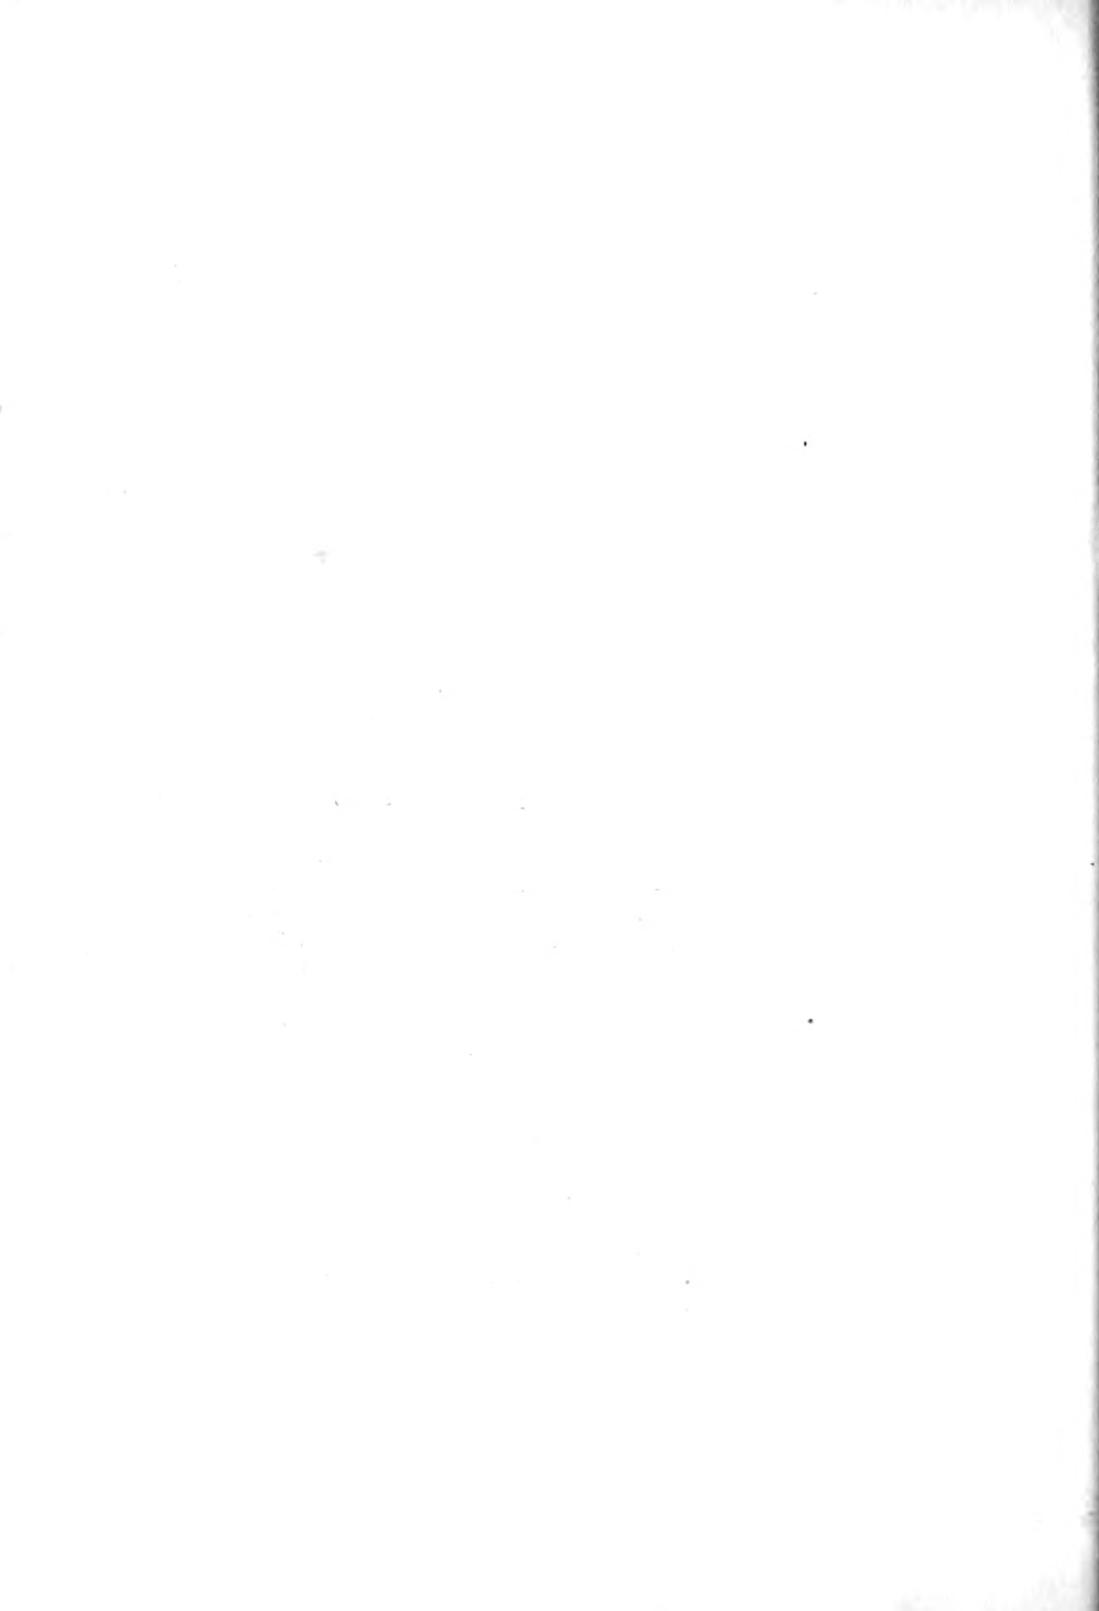

The orchestra made its first public appearance during the Freshman Reception when it opened the program with a march, "Stony Point".

In keeping with the Mardi Gras spirit of the Hi-Jinx program the orchestra played a popular number, "I Saw Stars".

During the Public School Week program the orchestra accompanied the community singing of "America" and the "Star Spangled Banner", and played a Victor Herbert Selection.

The students had the honor of being asked to play for a county meeting of the Federated Women's Clubs, at the Masonic Hall, May 8. Members of the orchestra are: Jane Abbott, Piano; Orrin Blattner, Trombone; Evelyn Bledsoe, Violin; Louis Castillo, Violin; Marvin Burke, Clarinet; Donald DeMartini, Clarinet; May De-Martini, Piano; Sumner Gallaher, Trumpet; Carl Collins, Drums; Mervyn Jones, Drums; Oliver Lonergan, Saxophone; Jean McFarlan, Saxophone; Leo McFarlan, Trumpet; Mac Smith, Saxophone; and Mary Wilder, Violin. The entire program was centered around the idea of a Mardi Gras. Articles donated by many friends and business men were raffled.

There were a number of concessions including "Aimee Minnie", Voodoo-land, and La Cucaracha Cabaret.

"The Laughing Guest", a mysterious farce by Bush and Cook, was very successfully presented on April 2, in the school auditorium. The entire play took place in the old Hoyt Mansion. Many thrills were provided when a mysterious laughing guest appeared on the scene. Various valuable articles of the house guests mysteriously disappeared. Mr. Du Beck, the detective, collected considerable evidence. However, he was exposed by Dr. Holmes, the County Health Officer, who proved that Du Beck was the insane son of the former owner of the mansion. The final curtain fell just as Dr. Holmes exposed Mr. Du Beck. The play was directed by the Misses Dorothy McGinley and Evelyn Mulqueeney.

JUNIOR PROM

Red, white, and blue streamers, life preservers and a gang plank were in evidence when the passengers of the S. S. Junior Prom were entertained at the "Captain's Ball" on April 12. The back of the stage boasted a light house with a flashing red light. Punch was served in the patio in a red, white, and blue booth. As the Prom was the last night on board ship, the desired nautical effect was carried out. "Babs" and a musical "crew" provided the music.

MOTHER'S TEA

Spain was the setting for the annual Mother's Tea, on May 28. The stage was attractively decorated to carry out the Spanish idea. A one act play, "Mi Novio Espanol", with singing and dancing, was presented. After the program, tea was served in the library. Miss Dorothy McGinley and Miss Evelyn Mulqueeney were in charge of arrangements.

SENIOR BALL

In the shadows of a Cocoanut Grove, the Seniors held their annual Senior Ball on May 24. Shades of green, yellow and tan were appropriately used to make the setting most attractive. The ceiling was festooned with the colored crepe paper streamers. Palm leaves gave a decided tropical air to the scene. The stage was so arranged that the orchestra seemed to be playing in a patio. Reese's Racketeers provided the music. Dancing continued from 9 P.M. to 2 A.M. The following were committee chairmen: decoration, Fred Abbott; programs and bids, Anita Armstrong; punch, Margaret Clark; advertising, Charles Weeks; orchestra, Jack Nash; general advisor, Mrs. Ashley D. Shaw.

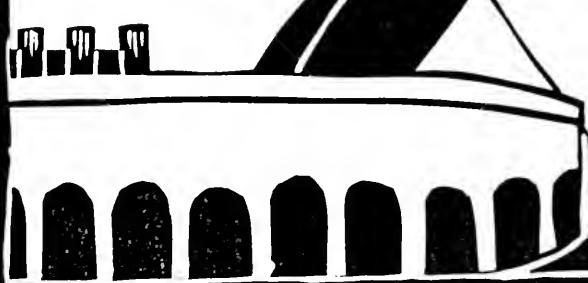

GRADUATION

Thirty eight members of the Seniors Class received their diplomas the evening of June 14, in the high school auditorium. The girls carried bouquets of sweet peas, the class flower. The boys wore white carnations in their buttonholes. As is customary, the Juniors decorated the stage and carried out the colors of pink and green. At this time Hazel Houston had the honor of receiving her permanent California Scholarship Federation pin. Mrs. Ashley D. Shaw is the Senior advisor.

Spring brought baseball practice and plenty of boys who were eager to participate in the games. The new athletic field, which it is hoped will become a community play-field, proved inviting to the baseball boys. Liberty worked hard and although the boys came out on the short side they enjoyed the keen competition. Each season makes them more determined to win the next year. The games were close at times. In two games the Liberty team was ahead until the ninth inning.

Liberty was unfortunate in losing Raymond Moffett when he signed up with the St. Louis Browns of the American League. He left Brentwood in March to serve his apprenticeship with the San Antonio Farm Team, San Antonio, Texas.

The members of the baseball team are: Glenn French, Rudolph Heyne, Tsukani Hisatomi, Arnold Machado, Jack McFarlan, Leo McFarlan, Albert McNamara, Gilman Moody, Jerry Morgan, Angelo Rubio, Harry Sorgenfrey, Masoa Terai, and Orville Wristen.

Mr. Frank VonderAhe is the coach and was assisted by Mr. Melville Hoyt.

TRACK TEAM

The Contra Costa County Meet was held May 5, at Antioch. Liberty only had three official entries. Stanley Milinich took second place in the discus event. He threw the discus within two feet of the county record.

TENNIS-HANDBALL

An intermural tennis championship was run in May and June. At this time a handball tournament was held too. Many of the boys participated.

MOVIES

Mr. VonderAhe: "It was a trout of enormous size. I tell you I never saw such a fish!"
Jane A: "I believe you."

Raymond M: "What becomes of a ball-player when his eyes begin to fail?"
Mr. Hoyt: "They make him an umpire."

"Corky" M: "Why aren't you going around with that school teacher any more?"
Glenn F: "Couldn't stand it any longer. Every night I didn't show up, she wanted a written excuse from my mother."

Arnold M: (In a restaurant) "Hey, Moody, there's a fly in your coffee."
Gilman M: "I don't care. He won't drink much."

Margaret H: "Oh, I adore that funny little step of yours. Where did you pick it up?"
Lawrence H: "Funny nothing, my suspenders are busted."

Freshman: "Mama, may I go out tonight?"
Sophomore: "Going out tonight, Mother. Home at ten?"
Junior: "Going out tonight, Dad."
Senior: "G'night, Dad. I'll bring in the milk."

Jean G: "So Mac tried to win you by an invitation to ride in that old flivver of his."
Margaret C: "Yes, but I refused to be shaken."

Mr. Callaghan: "How many senses are there?"
Donald W: "Six."
Mr. Callaghan: "Indeed! I have only five."
Donald W: "Yes'r. The other is common sense."

Pauline L: "Mmm, but that popcorn has a heavenly smell!"
Harry S: "It sure has, I'll drive a little closer."

Mrs. Shaw: "Gordon, give me a sentence with the word flippancy."
Gordon F: "Let's flippancy whether I pass or flunk."

Orville W: "Sir, I have been courting your daughter for three years."

Mr. Smith: "Well, what do you want?"

Orville W: "I want to marry her."

Mr. Smith: "Oh, is that all! I thought you wanted a pension or something."

Coach: "Suppose it was fourth down, on their 15 yard line, with the score tied and three minutes to go. What would you do?"

Arnold: "I'd slide down further on the bench to get a better look at the next game."

Marian G: "Transfer, please."

Conductor: "Where to, miss?"

Marian G: "Can't tell you; it's a surprise party."

Willie: "Got a gun and a diary for Christmas, and wrote in his diary:
"December 26. Snowin', can't go huntin'."
"December 27. Snowin' yet, can't go hunting."
"December 28. Still snowin', shot Grandpa."

Ruth Everitt: "Will the anaesthetic make me sick?"

Surgeon: "No, I think not."

Ruth: "How long will it be before I know anything?"

Surgeon: "Aren't you expecting a little too much from the anaesthetic?"

Jack McF: "I always have a second piece of pie, no matter where I am."

Frances S: "But it's bad manners to ask for two helpings, especially when you're a dinner guest at a stranger's house."

Laura N: "They laughed when I sat down at the piano--some dumbrain had removed the stool."

Mr. Callaghan: "Jones, give me the formula for water."

Mervyn J: "Yes sir, it's HIJKLMNOP."

Mr. Callaghan: "Whatever are you driving at, do you think you are in kindergarten?"

Mervyn Jones: "No, sir, but you said yesterday it was H to O."
